Alice Schille

Viola Frey

Patti Warashina

Claudine Raguet Hirst

Phyllis Sloane

Jane Peterson

Toshiko Takaezu

Mary Spain

Elizabeth Catlett

IDENTITY

This artist hid who she was for opportunity's sake. She became a critic of the men that she showed with, and even changed her name.

PASSION

During the dentistry program, in which she was enrolled, this artist could not deny that with clay, she was enthralled.

CHARACTER

This artist painted strange scenes of figurines in hats. If you look through this exhibit, you'll see a hat on a cat.

ACTIVISM

This artist was also an activist, who fought for the right to equity. When America exiled her to Mexico, she fought for workers' integrity.

SELF-MOTIVATED

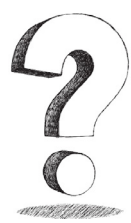

She always knew she was an artist, and her father this did pity. When her dad said, "no," she said, "I've got to go," and boarded a train to the city.

INSPIRATIONAL

This woman is a well know artist and teacher, loved by all that she knew. She's inspired by her heritage and where she grew up too!
